ATTACK VECTOR & SCOPE

Attack Type: Credential Compromise via SIM-Swap (Social Engineering) → Unauthorized S3 Data Exfiltration

Entry Point: Employee mobile number (Rahul Tiwari, Cloud Engineer) was SIM-swapped by attacker who then bypassed OTP-based MFA to access AWS console.

Data Exfiltrated (Confirmed):

- 12,847 customer records — names, email IDs, phone numbers
- 3,241 records containing partial payment card data (last 4 digits + expiry only — NO full PAN)
- 890 records with PAN / Aadhaar numbers (masked in system but unmasked in backup export files)
- Internal API keys for third-party integrations (Twilio, Razorpay) — all rotated within 4 hours

Data NOT Exfiltrated: Database dumps, source code, financial records, full card numbers.
